Wednesday, November 7, 2018

7:30 - 9:00 AM

Building 1 Assembly Room

314 State Route 12 (County Complex)

Flemington, NJ 08822

Join us for a presentation by the State Agriculture Development Committee staff about the NJ Right-to-Farm Act.

- Learn about the Right-to-Farm process from start to finish.
- Who the Right-to-Farm Act protects.
- How can farmers and neighbors work together.
- Why the mediation process is important.
- Guidelines for successful farmland events.
- Support for elected and municipal officials in farming communities.
- Topics include: Farm Eligibility, Farmland Assessment vs. Commercial Farm Certification, Protected Agriculture Management Practices (AMP's), Special Occasion Events, Site Specific Agriculture Management Practices (SSAMP's), and Mediation vs. Litigation

We expect a lively and informative discussion, so please come prepared with questions and comments. Email questions (planning@co.hunterdon.nj.us) in advance to ensure detailed answers at the meeting.
